

BearPower Ambassador Program

Are you a member of the WBL community who has an idea on how to make it easier for your community to eat better and move more?

Here is your chance to put that idea into action!

WHO: WBL community members and organizations

WHAT: You are invited to design a project that helps make better eating and physical activity easy and fun in our community

HOW: When you become a BearPower Ambassador you will get support for supplies to make your project happen

CELEBRATE: Showcase your best ideas to create community health
