

The Many Faces of the White Bear Lake Area

A SERIES OF EVENTS HONORING OUR LEGACY

This collaborative introduces participants to the people who inhabited the area around the lake during various periods of time.

A continuation of last season's community conversations around the book A Good Time for the Truth.

Original People: Dakota and Ojibwe

Wednesday, November 14

6 - 7:30 PM

White Bear Lake District Center

Saging and Welcome

Blessing by Dakota & Ojibwe Elders

Light Dinner from the Sioux Chef

Presentation Coordinated by the
White Bear Lake Area Historical Society

Table Conversation

White Bear Lake District Center, Room 112

4855 Bloom Ave., White Bear Lake

Light meal and childcare provided.

Event is free but registration is required. Call
651-407-7501 or www.whitebear.ce.eleyo.com

Tuesday, December 4

10 - 11:30 AM

Mahtomedi District Education Center

Saging and Welcome

Blessing by Dakota & Ojibwe Elders

Presentation Coordinated by the
White Bear Area Lake Area Historical Society

Q & A

Mahtomedi District Education Center

1520 Mahtomedi Ave., Mahtomedi

Event is free but registration required.

Call to register: 651-407-2018

Mark Your Calendar for Upcoming Series Events

Changing Traditions: European Settlers

Wed, January 23, 6 - 7:30 PM, White Bear Lake

Tue, February 5, 10 - 11:30 AM, Mahtomedi

Shifting Demographics: Baby Boom & Migration

Wed, April 3, 6 - 7:30 PM, White Bear Lake

Tue, April 9, 10 - 11:30 AM, Mahtomedi

For associated events please contact:

Mahtomedi Community Education: 651-407-2018

White Bear Lake Community Services: 651-407-7501

Partners for the Many Faces Events include:

Mahtomedi Public Schools, White Bear Lake Area Schools, White Bear Lake Area Historical Society, Greater White Bear Lake Community Foundation, WBLAS American Indian Parent Advisory Committee, Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe and the cities of Birchwood Village, Dellwood, Hugo, Mahtomedi, White Bear Lake, White Bear Township, and Willernie.