RECAP OF PAST EVENTS

American Indian Honoring Ceremony

On June 1st, 2019, the Indian Education Program hosted an Academic Honoring Ceremony for students K-12 who successfully completed the school year. All students were given certificates of accomplishment and were honored through traditional song, dance, prayer, and food. The graduates of 2019 received beaded Eagle feathers as a representation of their strength, honor, and persistence.

Internship Opportunity

The Many Faces, Many Stories is a series of events that builds community through storytelling while recognizing, honoring, and embracing all cultures with humility and respect. As this series has grown to have over eight collaborating partners, there is a need for a student, Social Media Marketing Intern.

For more information, please reach out to Jordan.Zickermann@isd624.org

Duties:

Assist with content delivery on the Many Faces social media accounts (e.g. Facebook, Twitter) ensuring uniform content and tone of voice for landing pages, and graphics.

- A. Increase the number of followers/likes on the Many Faces social media platforms by following and engaging with community members and series participants
- B. Monitor and reply to Tweets and Facebook comments
- C. Post on platforms on a weekly basis
- D. Attend monthly marketing meetings to ensure up-to-date content delivery (as schedule permits)
- E. Attend at least 4 main Many Faces events while posting live updates
